

PUBLIC NOTICE FOR AN INTERNATIONAL CALL FOR APPLICATIONS FOR THE POST OF POST-DOCTORAL RESEARCHER

PURSUANT TO DECREE-LAW NO. 57/ 2016 OF 29 AUGUST

Portuguese version

Internal Reference: Investigador Doutorado - HfPT – Health from Portugal

1. Framework

The Rector of the Universidade Católica Portuguesa, Prof. Dr. Isabel Capelo Gil, hereby announces the opening of an international call for applications for one vacancy of junior doctoral researcher to perform duties of scientific research and knowledge transfer (with an exclusivity clause), in the scientific field of Health Sciences. The research activities will be carried out at the Centre for Interdisciplinary Research in Health (CIIS), integrated at the Institute of Health Sciences (Porto) of Universidade Católica Portuguesa, in Porto, within the framework of the project HfPT – Health from Portugal, co-financed by the Mobilizing agendas for industrial innovation, within the EU regulation 2021/241 of the European Parliament and Council and the Portuguese Resilience and Recovery Plan, item 5 – Management Innovation and Capitalization.

The research project main objective is to develop a solution that improves the wound monitoring effectiveness through reducing registration time, provide a greater reliability on the wounds characterization and improve resource management through the development of a mobile application for health professionals which is able to capture and process the wounds' image enabling a differentiated /specialized clinical information to support wound monitoring and treatment and also through a web platform for health professionals and managers designed to add and integrate all information to help management. The Research Fellow will participate in all project tasks, from the development of the app to clinical testing and performance studies. He/she must therefore show flexibility to work in different areas of research, adaptation, teamwork and good communication skills.

2. Applicable Legislation

Decree-Law no. 57/2016 of 29 August, amended by Law no. 57/2017 of 19 July, in its current wording, which sets out the framework for the hiring of post-doctoral academics, aimed at fostering scientific and technological employment in all areas of knowledge (RJEC), without prejudice to the specific regulations applicable to the Universidade Católica Portuguesa.

3. Workplace

The workplace is located at the Porto facilities of the Universidade Católica Portuguesa.

4. Remuneration

Gross monthly pay is €2.294,95, plus meal allowance, to which will be added annual leave and Christmas allowances.

5. Admission requirements

Any national, foreign, or stateless candidates who hold a doctoral degree in Nursing or related scientific fields, and who furthermore hold a scientific and professional curriculum vitae whose profile is suited to the activities to be performed, can submit their application. If the doctoral degree was awarded by a foreign higher education institution, said degree must comply with the provisions of Portuguese legislation regarding the recognition of foreign degrees. For those purposes, the requirements described in point no. 11 of this public notice must be considered.

5.1. Specific Requirements

- Research experience giving preference to those applicants with experience in wounds prevention and treatment and/or information systems.
- Good communication, interpersonal relationship and teamwork skills.
- Strong organisation, leadership, initiative and time management skills.
- Sense of honesty and responsibility.
- Work capacity and autonomy
- Fluency in English (written and spoken)

6. Selection Process

The selection process must comply with article 5 of the RJEC.

7. Assessment criteria

The assessment criteria are the following: scientific output and its relevance, participation in scientific projects and conferences, student supervision, scientific dissemination activities, knowledge transfer, and other relevant activities and experience. The assessment process additionally includes an interview with the candidates ranked in the top three positions.

The final candidate classification shall be given on a scale of 0 to 100. The value shall be invariably calculated taking into account that, for each item, only those activities relevant to the field of the present call for applications are to be considered, with the following weighting:

1. Scientific and curricular background (SCB)

- a) Scientific and technological output: 40%;
- b) Applied or practice-based research activities: 35%;
- c) Knowledge extension and dissemination activities: 5%;
- d) Interview 10% (I).

The candidates ranked in the first three positions will be interviewed (I), in order to clarify aspects related to the results of their research. They will be asked to make a 10-minute presentation (including a PowerPoint presentation), in which they demonstrate their contributions to the research field.

Applicants who are interviewed will be awarded a new classification – in addition to the initial one –, based on the following formula:

Final classification = 90% SCB+ 10% I

Only candidates with a final classification of seventy-five points or above, in a scale of 0 to 100, will be selected for this position.

8. Tender Selection Panel

Pursuant to article 13 of the RJEC, the tender selection panel shall be formed by:

President of the Jury: Prof. Dr. Paulo Alves;

Other members: Prof. Dr. Margarida Vieira; Prof. Dr. Beatriz Araújo and Prof. Dr. João Neves Amado.

9. Deliberation and publication

The panel shall deliberate by means of roll-call voting based on the adopted and disclosed selection criteria, with no abstentions allowed. Minutes of panel meetings shall be taken. These shall contain a summary of events, as well as details of the votes cast by each of the members and their respective reasoning. After all selection criteria have been applied, the panel shall prepare a ranked list of approved candidates and their respective classification. The panel's final decision shall be approved by the Rector, who shall also approve the hiring of the selected candidate.

The ranked list of approved candidates will be posted at the Porto facilities of Universidade Católica Portuguesa, located at Universidade Católica Portuguesa – Centro Regional do Porto, Rua de Diogo Botelho, 1327, 4169-005 Porto, Portugal and will be published on the website <https://fcse.lisboa.ucp.pt/pt-pt/docentes-conhecimento/investigacao/centro-de-investigacao-interdisciplinar-em-saude/nursing-research-platform>. Candidates will be notified by email once this list has been made available.

10. Preliminary Hearing and Final Decision Deadline

After notification of the results, candidates have ten working days to respond. In the following five working days (counting from the end of the candidates' response period), the panel's final decision is issued.

11. Formal application procedure

Applications are formalized by completing the application form available at <https://hr-ucpporto.inqueritos.porto.ucp.pt/126186?lang=en>.

Applications must be submitted in English.

Applications shall include the following documents:

- a) Curriculum vitae, Detailed (should contain all elements to assess admission requirements, including language skills and research experience);
- b) Doctoral Certificate with date of admission to the degree;
- c) Motivation letter, identifying the project title and reference, describing the reasons that his/her contribution will be an asset to the project and research group;
- d) Copy of the certificates of academic degrees, with the final grades;

- e) In case the academic degree has been awarded by a foreign higher education institution, the candidate must submit the PhD Certificate of Recognition or the recognition application receipt according with the Portuguese law.
- f) Copy of scientific publications and other works that the candidate may consider relevant;
- g) Up to three reference letters (optional).

If the Doctoral Degree has been awarded by a non-Portuguese higher education institution, said degree must comply with the provisions of the Portuguese legislation on the recognition of foreign degrees, as set out in Decree-Law no. 66/2018 of August 16th. Entering into a contract with the selected candidate is conditional on the submission of the formal document.

For additional information on this matter candidates are advised to check the website of the Directorate-General for Higher Education (DGES): <https://www.dges.gov.pt/en/pagina/degree-and-diploma-recognition>.

12. Application deadline

Candidates may submit their application, pursuant to the terms mentioned in the previous point, from January 17, 2024 until January 31, 2024 (until 5pm, Continental Portugal time).

Candidates who do not comply with the application's prerequisites or who fail to submit proof of meeting the requirements stated in the present public notice shall be excluded from consideration. In case of doubt, the panel is entitled to request that candidates present further documentation attesting to their written statements. Failure to submit the requested clarification, information, or documents, within five working days of being requested to do so, determines the dismissal of the application.

Any false statements made or provided by the candidates are punishable by law.

13. Privacy Policy

Universidade Católica Portuguesa is the controller responsible for the processing of Personal Data in accordance with Regulation (EU) 2016/679 – General Regulation on Data Protection.

The personal data submitted within the scope of this tender procedure is processed within the framework of said tender procedure only, and will be treated by Universidade Católica Portuguesa with the purpose of verifying the fulfillment, by the candidates, of the assumptions established in the applicable legislation for their contracting. Opposition to the processing of data by the candidates will make it impossible to accept the application and, therefore, to analyze and evaluate it.
